

Archived News

:: Update on Islay 'LIMPET 500' 09/03/01

Civil construction work on the Limpet :: device on the island of Islay is now complete. The front wall of the collector is finished, as can be seen from the photograph above. The Wells turbine will be transported from Inverness to site.

photograph taken March 2001

For press release of Limpet Launch
click here ::

The photograph below shows the butterfly valves installed on the capture chamber

back to Archived News ::